“Stay Home with us...”

Owned & managed by Spices Collection Sdn Bhd

Sweet Cili Hotel is located along Gat Lebu Melayu or Malay Street Ghaut which is named after the early Malay Settlement in George Town which was (back then) of close proximity to the edge of the seafront prior to the reclamation of Weld Quay. In the early days George Town was a bustling port frequented by spice merchants from the Malay Archipelago, Arab and India. Chili, a commonly found spice in the everyday cooking of Malaysian Malays, Chinese and Indians were since then popularly traded.

To most people, chili is known for its pungency. However, to some it is an acquired taste which led to some people, likening it to being (tongue-in-cheek) sweet. “Cili” the Malay spelling for Chili is intentional in context with the locality of Malay Street Ghaut. Hence, Sweet Cili a hotel with the acquired comfort of home and the warmth of a family.
